

HELP US SHARE THE HISTORY OF LAKE APOPKA FARM WORKERS

AT THE BLACK FARMERS AND URBAN GARDENERS CONFERENCE

For conference information, visit blackurbangrowers.org

BLACK FARMERS
& URBAN GARDENERS
CONFERENCE
DURHAM, NC
OCT. 19-21
2018

ROOTS & RESILIENCE
PRESERVING BLACK LAND . RECLAIMING SELF-DETERMINATION

MAKE A CONTRIBUTION

For the Farmworker
Association of Florida and YAYA to attend this transformative gathering of Black farmers and leaders

Click [DONATE] at nfwm.org
memo: BUGS Conference

SUPPORT BLACK FARM WORKERS

The Farmworker Association of Florida has organized with Black farm workers in Apopka for over twenty years. Workers displaced from Lake Apopka farms in 1998 due to pesticide contamination continue to preserve their history and stand for justice.

YAYA -National Farm Worker Ministry is a network of young people taking action in solidarity with farm workers.